

Daddy Always

Darwin Deez

Whenever soft footfalls compounding
When I think I'm alone
And daddy's hair looks must and counting
On you, you know

Daddy always comes home on time
And he always hugs me goodnight
Daddy always comes home to me
And he always comes home

Fake fireplace knows I am commonplace
I can't deface mommy's ace
She knows I'm a liar
Just credit cards and [?] in all of us
In God we trust
Ash to ash
And bicycles to rust
Bikes to rust

Daddy always comes home on time
And he always hugs me goodnight
Daddy always comes home to me
And he always comes home

Tie shoes tightly, I'm gonna run
When mommy finds out what daddy's done
Marina is full of characters, stay close
Hold daddy's hand, there's daddy's boat
Oh she'll never love him
She's miles above him
He wears too many bow ties
No I wasn't bluffing
See the sails are luffing
Pull the halyard til the boat flies
Set fire to that photo
I never should have told
Old liars can't relax
Hear the waves lap gently
Foggy bay is empty
Ah we won't be coming back
We won't be coming back
