

OK Boomerang

Darwin Deez

In your new life, you work exactly seven hours a day
And order pizza from the corner café
Watch the moon from on top of the sphinx
Nobody ever blinks

And in your new life, you've got a spot beside the biggest pyra mid
And you're looking forward to next year in Madrid
And you've uncovered several precious artifacts
But I can see the cracks

Yeah I should shake you til the truth falls out
I know you wanna come back to me sometimes
Yeah I should shake you til the truth goes bang
And you come back to me boomerang

And in the meantime, whoever dies thinnest wins it all
And they sell affection in a can of aerosol
You spray a little when I cross your mind
And call it cloud nine

And in your new life, you say you couldn't be happier now
You like it better with a sweatier brow
And your Rosetta Stone don't mention a boy like me
And you're finally free

Yeah I should shake you til the truth falls out
I know you wanna come back to me sometimes
Yeah I should shake you til the truth goes bang
And you come back to me boomerang
(Boomerang)

The stuff you find will never take my place
And when you're boomerang dreaming
You'll see my face

The stuff you find will never take my place
And when you're boomerang dreaming
You'll see my face
