

Lower me down into my silo
I know I left my heart around here somewhere, it's dry though

Sophie do the rain dance, Sophie make rain
Sophie dump Gatorade on me after the game

We're looking for that one kiss that started it all
Me and Meghan tanner by the bathrooms in the hall

We're looking for imposters, confederates and spies
With lows as low as this you'd think there'd be highs

Sophie softly
Unflatten me I'm off-key
Sharpen my attention
Show off your body
I can feel it I'm not me
Sophie not hardly
Rest your elbow on my knee
Sophie softly

I'm finding some items that I thought I had lost
I found an old jar of Meghan tanner's lip gloss

She rode the bus home with her hair out the window
It rippled and billowed full of classified info

A radio telescope sees only the blackness
I never should have built myself a home inside sadness

But I'm coming back up soon, losing your way in life is an art form
Good thing your hands are warm

Sophie softly
Unflatten me I'm off-key
Sharpen my attention
Show off your body
I can feel it I'm not me
Sophie not hardly
Rest your elbow on my knee
Sophie softly
