

The Coma Song

Darwin Deez

You've been lying in a hospital bed
Seven days now you've been lost in your head
I'm just sitting here exhausted and dead
From just watching you lay there

Oh, I'd fall willingly down the stairs
If I could have
Oh, I'd fall willingly down the stairs

You breathe in and out but don't make a sound
Ever since you hit your head on the ground
Fluorescent lighting shining around
Your pale face, your eyes closed

Oh, I'd fall willingly down the stairs
If I could have
Oh, I'd fall willingly down the stairs

And oh now, my kisses go to waste
Now my kisses go to waste
Now my kisses go to waste
When I kiss your face 'cause you are not awake

Oh, I'd fall willingly down the stairs
If I could have
Oh, I'd fall willingly down the stairs

Oh, I'd fall willingly down the stairs
If I could have, if I could have
Oh, I'd fall willingly down the stairs
