

He'll Heal My Broken Heart

Daryle Singletary

The Lord said the blind will see the lame would walk those golden streets
The deaf would hear the angels sing the righteous would be given wings
So I know I will find up there the answer to my nightly prayer

He'll heal my broken heart
Put each shattered piece where it belongs
His mighty hand can make the red sea part I know
He'll heal my broken heart

He saw you leaving me and he saw me on my knees
He heard me call your name till I nearly went insane
Just before I lost all hope I heard a voice say just hang on

He'll heal my broken heart...
His mighty hand can make the red sea part I know
He'll heal my broken heart
