

Hurts Don't It

Daryle Singletary

I didn't think you had it in you
I've never seen this side of you before
Should I seem and moved, girl, I don't mean to
It's just that I'm surprised you're at my door

Thinking I could help you
Through your first heartache
Well since you gave me mine
All I know to say

Hurts don't it when love takes its final breath
It's enough to hurt you half to death
When at last your heart gives all that it can give
And the other one don't want it, hurts don't it, hurts don't it

I didn't think that I had it in me
To ever hold you close like this again
This ain't how I wanted you to need me

But a broken heart takes anything it can
Nothing leaves you lonelier than love when it goes
And if you ever wondered how I felt maybe now you know

Hurts don't it when love takes its final breath
It's enough to hurt you half to death
When at last your heart gives all that it can give
And the other one don't want it, hurts don't it

When at last your heart gives all that it can give
And the other one don't want it hurts don't it, hurts don't it
