

All by Myself

Daryll-Ann

The card on the board had figures on it
The chosen fell in love
All the secrets went a while ago
And empty math resolved

To mix up the rules you're full of reason
Common sense's won
Take your thrill to the fair take it anywhere
Try at least to keep it up

All by myself
I tried I fell
Believe that all the seasons turn to snow

To mix up the rules you're full of reason
Common sense's won
Take your thrill to the fair take it anywhere
Try at least to keep it up

All by myself
I tried I fell
Believe that all the seasons turn to snow

I think I know
Your eyes so cold
I know that you believe in peace of mind

All by myself
I tried I fell
Believe that all the seasons turn to snow
