The Darkest One

Darzamat

I teach you the gift of darkness
For you could know the unknown
Fou you could keep the secret
Which is the greatest of all

When you become the part of darkness
You will understand the untold
And your light in the sky
Will blink and hide in you

Darkest tear falls
Shedding goblet of bitterness
Free me from the pain of life
And you pass me in the arms of death
Crying of beauty of the night

I show you the gift of darkness
Crying of beauty of the night
You pass me in the arms of death
Free me from the pain of life
When you become the part of darkness
You will understand the untold
And your light in the sky
Will blink and hide in you
