

Man On The Skyfire

Dash Berlin

You stole a kiss and stole my heart
Made me a fool right from the start
It wouldn't have been so bad except
This little plan it fell apart

If I were you
I'd dare not speak
I'd run like hell
In hopes of seeing tomorrow
It is such a travesty
It is such a tragedy
Think you can just break my heart and leave me

Well you better run
Oh man on the run
Playing for fun wind me up
Leave me undone

It is such a travesty
The way you say our love should be
It is such a tragedy
Think you can just break my heart and leave me

Well you better run
Oh man on the run
Playing for fun wind me up
Leave me undone
