

New Dawn

Dash Berlin

I've spent too many nights
Fighting with myself
Waging a war inside
Afraid to cry for help
Lost on the battleground
I couldn't see the end
No

But they say
It's always darkest before light will break
And last night
I could see the black fadin' to grey
But last night
I could feel it all was gonna change

This is a new dawn
This is a new day
Watching the sunrise
As the shadows fall away
I'm ready for blue skies
And seeing with new eyes
I'll never be the same as I was yesterday
'Cause this is the new dawn
Ooh, ooh, yeah, yeah

This is a new dawn
This is a new dawn
(Dawn, dawn...)
This is a new dawn
This is a new dawn

Someday the heaviness will follow me again
(Again)
I'm not invincible
I'm human like the rest
But when it does
I will hold on to the only ray of hope
And I will know
It's not the end

This is a new dawn
This is a new day
Watching the sunrise
As the shadows fall away
I'm ready for blue skies
And seeing with new eyes
I'll never be the same as I was yesterday
'Cause this is a new dawn
Ooh, ooh, yeah, yeah
This is a new dawn

This is a new dawn
This is a new day
Watching the sunrise as the shadows fall away
'Cause this is a new dawn
