

Save Myself

Dash Berlin

I've been under water
The sea is getting rough
I've been waiting for somebody who is strong enough
To pull me to the surface
And fill my lungs with air
Help me do the things I dreamed of but I never there

I've been waiting so long
But now I can see that no one's throwing me a line
I've been holding on
But now I believe this is the time

Just save myself
No I will hold my breath
Expecting someone else
Save myself
And I'm not staying still
'Cause you know I will
Save myself
No I will hold my breath
Expecting someone else
Save myself
And I'm not staying still
'Cause you know I will

I can be my hero
Got my armor on
No more hiding 'cause I was the answer all along
I don't need no rescue
I can find my way
I'm the only one I'll count on to come save the day

I was waiting so long
But then I could see that no one's throwing me a line
I was holding on
But then I believed it was the time

Just save myself
No I will hold my breath
Expecting someone else
Save myself
And I'm not staying still
'Cause you know I will

Oh, oh, oh, oh
I don't need your help
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I can save myself
Oh, oh, oh, oh
I don't need your help
Oh, oh, oh, oh

'Cause I can save myself
No I will hold my breath
Save myself

'Cause you know I will
