

Time After Time

Dash Berlin

If you're lost, you can look and you will find me
Time after time
If you fall, I will catch you, I'll be waiting
Time after time
Time after time
Time after time

If you're lost, you can look and you will find me
Time after time
If you fall, I will catch you, I will be waiting
Time after time
Time after time

Lyin' in my bed
I hear the clock tick and think of you
Caught up in circles
Confusion is nothing new
Suitcase of memories
Time after time

If you're lost, you can look and you will find me
Time after time
If you fall, I will catch you, I will be waiting
Time after time
If you fall, I will catch you, I will be waiting
Time after time

If you're lost, you can look and you will find me
Time after time
If you fall, I will catch you, I will be waiting
Time after time

Time after time
Time after time
Time after time
Time after time
