

Wired

Dash Berlin

The romance that was given the beauty
Endlessness of innocence
Like wildflowers in an empty space
All gone now, washed away

I am wired to the sound to protect myself
Everything I ever loved, taken by storm
Lost myself in music, found myself a home
Wired, I'm home

I am wired to the sound to protect myself
Everything I ever loved, taken by storm
Lost myself in music, found myself a home
Wired, I'm home
