

7 Minutes In Heaven

Dasha

I heard you're in town for the weekend
It's like you know I've been sleeping alone
Is it naive that I'm thinking
I could see you and leave here on my own

You're calling me up like you've never broken my heart
Oh
Oh and I'm picking up like I don't know that healing is hard

I'll take 7 minutes in heaven
For seven months in hell
Turn the pain up to eleven
To have you for myself
For one more night
One more time
Under my belt

You know me by name, but you call me baby
I'll go down in flames as long as you take me
You know that I will play by your rules any day
It's ring around the rosie babe
I'm getting dizzy playing all these games

You're calling me up like you've never broken my heart
Oh
Oh and I'm picking up like I don't know that healing is hard

I'll take 7 minutes in heaven
For seven months in hell
Turn the pain up to eleven
To have you for myself
For one more night
One more time
Under my belt

K-I-S-S-I-N-G
Let you get the best of me
K-I-S-S-I-N-G
I know that you're not good for me, oh

I'll take 7 minutes in heaven
For seven months in hell
Turn the pain up to eleven
To have you for myself
For one more night
One more time
Under my belt

Yeah I'll take 7 minutes in heaven
For 7 months in hell
For you I'd wreck myself
For 7 months in hell
