

Drown Me

Dasha

You know that I would let you drown me
Always try to save somebody
Put your hands on my chest, push me under, take my breath
You know I'd let you
Maybe that's just how you want me, as your victim saying sorry
I'm turning blue and fading black, but I know there's no turning back
Once I let you, and God I'll let you

Empty all the air inside my lungs and choke me in the water
Even when you think I've had enough, then hold me even harder
And drown me, baby drown me

Love and hate just ain't that different
Wanna stab and then kiss it
I'm a fiend, I'm so sick, tryna get my final hit
If it kills me, so baby kill me

Empty all the air inside my lungs and choke me in the water
Even when you think I've had enough, then hold me even harder
Baby drown me, if you need me
I'm infatuated, baby, with the way you hate me
And I'd tuck myself into the tides if that meant I could save you
So drown me, so baby drown me, baby drown me
