

Like It Like That

Dasha

Baby, you ain't a keeper
I should probably throw you right back in
I don't know how to read you
When I push away, you pull me back in
You're a mess, but I cleaned it
Said, "I ain't never doing this again"
But I left the door unlocked
Saved you a spot
See you around 2 a.m.

Boots are on the bed, smokin' on a Red
Hungover again, but I ain't done
Gimme little names, playing little games
Drivin' me insane, but it's so fun
Got a list that goes on and on
Of all the things I shouldn't want, but I do
And man, I do
Mmm, mmm

Yeah, I like it like that, I need it like that
You must be doing something, keep me coming right back
I want it like that, I need it like that
I do, I do, do, do

Lost your job, ain't a problem
Baby, let me fill up that tank
Bring the stress, bring the drama
But you're doing what the other boys can't
He's got some bad tattoos, and he drives too fast
And I might be going crazy thinking this could last
But the door's unlocked
Saved you a spot
See you around 2 a.m.

Boots are on the bed, smokin' on a Red
Hungover again, but I ain't done
Gimme little names, playing little games
Drivin' me insane, but it's so fun
Got a list that goes on and on
Of all the things I shouldn't want, but I do
And man, I do
Mmm, mmm

Yeah, I like it like that, I need it like that
You must be doing something, keep me coming right back
I like it like that, I need it like that
I do, I do, do, do

Yeah, I like it like that, I need it like that
You must be doing something, keep me coming right back
I like it like that, I need it like that
I do, I do, do, do

I got a list that goes on and on
Of all the things I shouldn't want, but I do
