

Wish That You Were Here

Dasha

You're the type of guy to get what he wants
I'm the type of girl to fall in love
With someone when I know I shouldn't, honey
I played the part, I did it right
I learned to love the things you liked
'Cause all I wanted was for you to want me

And with just one look at you
I should've known just what you'd do
And now I made a fucking fool of myself

And I hate that you hid me from all of your friends
You loved me but never told them, guess you forgot
And I made excuses up
And I hate that you lied, said you're sleeping alone
Broke up with me over the phone without a tear
And I hate that I still wish that you were here

Even though you had a girlfriend when we met
I was just in time for break up sex
The first time I let anybody know me
Oh and trust me I tried everything
I shit talked and cursed your name
But I'd rather have the worst of you than nothing

And I hate that you hid me from all of your friends
You loved me but never told them, guess you forgot
And I made excuses up
And I hate that you lied, said you're sleeping alone
Broke up with me over the phone without a tear
And I hate that I still wish that you were here

I wish that you were here
Do you wish it too, dear?

And with just one look at you
I should've known just what you'd do
And now I made a fucking fool of myself

And I hate that you hid me from all of your friends
You loved me but never told them, guess you forgot
And I made excuses up
And I hate that you lied, said you're sleeping alone
Broke up with me over the phone without a tear
And I hate that I still wish that you were here
