

Say Something

DAT ADAM

See, in this demon-haunted world
All the feelings are disturbed

Yeah, people tryna tell you how to look and how to talk
People tryna tell you where to put your mind and thoughts
People tryna tell you what you doin' ain't right
People tryna tell you what to do with your life, ayy
Human entities move like useless NPC's
Losin' all serenity, weight so huge, it bends the knees, yeah
We live and we die with all our visions denied
Gone in a blink of an eye, never feeling alive
And we're all human
I think we all go through this
Feels like our voice got muted
All trash alluded
And we all pursue things
We all wanna improve, but
If we really want things to change we need to say something
So why don't we just say something?
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

Mhm, yeah, yeah, come and say it with me
I am not your slave, I got my own plans
I don't care what you want me to be (oh-oh)
I don't fuckin' care what you all want me to be
Say it loud and proud
If your soul's about to drown, then take a minute
To sit down and breath in and out (eh-ey)

Let all that bullshit fade away
Even though shit is gettin' old
And there's evil on the throne
Don't let it rain on your parade
Okay, yeah
Yeah, I know that we can find a way or two
To get right out of the dark
Fires just need to get sparked
And with time we'll make a change
Oh-oh, yeah
With fuckin' time, we'll see it change
Just don't let them make you change names
Or infect you with the hate
Think ahead and switch your brains on
Ayy, be true to you, don't play a role
If we lose who we are, there's none but us to blame it on Ayy, improve and you let them know
We're more than our feels and we're more than our anger, yeah
We're fuckin' much more than this
You just need to notice it, so calm down and focus
If demons want to rule, they'll need a mass full of lonely kids
Which none of had a chance to ever grow up and know
It's own thoughts, so never trust the emotionless
They trade away your soul to make shit loads of dough with it
Find your way back home, catch your flow and just roll with it
All of us keep searchin', 'cause we know there's more than this Let's go and find out what it is

Patience is all we need, patience is all
I know it's hard, especially when this pain is involved
But the rain will dissolve and we'll claim the rewards
Keep it up, I know there's not a thang we can't solve
Patience is all we need, patience is all
I know it's hard, especially when this pain is involved
But the rain will dissolve and we'll claim the rewards
Keep it up, I know there's not a thang we can't solve
