

Just Found Heaven

Daughtry

Gone all my life
Worried about my soul
Brimstone and fire, stories I've been told
Then I saw grace right before my eyes
I should break through those gates, and fall from the sky

I hate to let you down, hate to let you down, no
Hate to say it now, hate to say it now, but

I don't really care where I go when I die
'Cause I just found heaven
You can tell the devil that's he's wasting his time
'Cause I just found heaven
Singin' Halle, Halle, Halle, Halle, Hallelujah
Singin' Halle, Halle, Halle, Halle, Hallelujah
Hallelujah

Sins wash away
Dark turns to light
Your body is a temple so take me inside, oh
I feel no pain, pleasures all mine
You give me a taste of eternal life

I hate to let you down, hate to let you down, no
Hate to say it now, hate to say it now, but

I don't really care where I go when I die
'Cause I just found heaven
You can tell the devil that's he's wasting his time
'Cause I just found heaven
Singin' Halle, Halle, Halle, Halle, Hallelujah
Singin' Halle, Halle, Halle, Halle, Hallelujah
Hallelujah

Hate to let you down, hate to let you down, no
Hate to let you down, hate to let you down, no

I don't really care where I go when I die
You can tell the devil that's he's wasting his time

Oh, I don't really care where I go when I die
'Cause I just found heaven
You can tell the devil that's he's wasting his time, no
'Cause I just found heaven
Singin' Halle, Halle, Halle, Halle, Hallelujah
Singin' Halle, Halle, Halle, Halle, Hallelujah
Hallelujah

Oh, hallelujah
Cause I just found heaven, hallelujah
(Oh, hate to let you down, hate to let you down)
Hallelujah
(Hate to let you down, hate to let you down, yeah)
Hallelujah
