

Deja Vu

Dave Barnes

It's like he can't help it
I swear he don't try
Of all the girls in the world
You're the one that keeps catching his eye

You've been here before
A couple million times or more
He's always right back at your door

'Cause he can't tell it's true
That he's in love
And it's with you
He can't tell the truth
That he's in love
I feel for you
And this Deja Vu
This Deja Vu

So please don't you blame him
See he's just been burned
He just can't understand
How it feels when the tables are turned

You've been hurt before
A couple million times or more
And now he's right back at your door

He can't tell it's true
That he's in love
And it's with you
He can't tell the truth
That he's in love
I feel for you
And this Deja Vu
This Deja Vu
This Deja Vu
This Deja Vu

How long can you keep on waiting
Just watching his mind keep changing
How long can you keep on waiting
Till he breaks your heart

He can't tell it's true
That he's in love
And it's with you
He can't tell the truth
That he's in love
I feel for you
And this Deja Vu
This Deja Vu
This Deja Vu
This Deja Vu

He just keeps coming right back to this feeling

He just keeps coming right back to this feeling
And this Deja Vu
