

Sunset, Santa Fe

Dave Barnes

Lamplit hotel bible, I wave through the blinds
Weatherman gives a warning, but you heal all my mind
All my mind

It's good to hear you laughing, thanks for checking in Just one more "Good night, angel," till I see you again
Once again

There's something about the distance
Something so bittersweet
About missing you but remembering
how much you mean to me
Chasing dreams a thousand miles away
Sunset, Santa Fe

I'm a product of your patience,
I'm blessed by your belief
I'd never dare the things I've done if you weren't there for me Can't you see?

There's something about the distance
Something so bittersweet
About missing you but remembering
how much you mean to me
Chasing dreams a thousand miles away
Sunset, Santa Fe
Santa Fe

There's something about the distance
Something so bittersweet
About missing you but remembering
how much you mean to me
Chasing dreams a thousand miles away
Sunset, Santa Fe

On my mind now, baby
On my mind now, baby
