

Thinkin Bout You

Dave Barnes

I ain't no problem you gotta worry about
I don't mean to bother you or show up unannounced
I can see you're thinking that I'm creeping at your door
I just gotta say it once I won't say it anymore

Baby, I'm thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Wonder if you thinking about me too
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Wonder if you thinking about me too

I tried to get one of those planes that pulls a sign
I actually called the place and looked it up online
No I'm not proud of it, I can't believe myself
This is the best I've got can't think of nothing else

Baby, I'm thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Wonder if you thinking about me too
Thinking bout you
Yes I'm thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Wonder if you thinking about me too

You and I are worth the try
Maybe it won't amount to anything
The sun will shine we'll be alright...

Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Wonder if you thinking about me too
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Wonder if you thinking about me too

Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
Thinking bout you
