Pull the Plug

Dave Days

It's so messed up
I need you like water in my lungs
We've been breaking and bending for so long years now
You're silent and I'm biting my tongue
Yeah, cause I'm still holding on

You say that you're leaving and this time you mean it
It kills me but maybe you should
You've told me your reasons you're composed I'm screaming
Forget me and leave me for good
It's about time

Pull the plug
And throw it away
Cause all you give is more than I can take
Do your worst I'm the one to blame
And now I feel it

But I'm alright
Drunk again over you tonight
Calling you just to say
I'm fine but it's a losing fight and I don't know why
We can't let it go

You say that you're leaving and this time you mean it
It kills me but maybe you should
You've told me your reasons you're composed I'm screaming
Forget me and leave me for good
It's about time

Pull the plug
And throw it away
Cause all you give is more than I can take
Do your worst I'm the one to blame
And now I feel it

You want me to say something
You're running away again
And I won't take the bait
So pull the plug and throw it away
Cause now I feel it

Cause now I feel it
Yeah, now I feel it
