Dave Dobbyn

You drive through the rainstorm
Skies will be clear over east of the ranges surely
You could drive all day long
Where everyone is asleep with their demons dreaming

So you're smoking up the highway
Go rattle them bones

There's a lifetime to breathe
And it ain't like you ever have to leave
Your heart of steel or your heart of stone
A heart unbroken is a heart on loan

Your mobile home oooh

This driving rainstorm
Lightning steep like the terrain you'll be navigating
Give all your pain here
The sky will speak if you pay for your life with your life

And you never have to worry
Go hang your hair down love
And you're smoking up the highway
Go rattle them bones

There's a lifetime to breathe
And it ain't like you ever have to leave
Your heart of steel or your heart of stone
A heart unbroken is a heart on loan

Your mobile home oooh
