Thirty Eight And Lonely

Dave Dudley

She's hurt so many men say they've loved her She gave herself not knowing they're all alive Tonight she sits alone no longer wanted wishing she could reliv e her life

Thirty seven single years has her thinking what good did it do to ber so kind

She's been the fool of many lie it lovers
She believed in the words I love you time after time
At midnight she'll be thirtyeight and lonely after all the lady game she's still alone
At midnight she'll be thirty-eight and lonely
Another wasted year another lie and lover gone

She's making up new glance for the future she's not gonna be so easy anymore

She's movin' to a new town meet new faces
It's the same old plan she made the year before
At midnight she'll be thirty-eight...
