Good Things

Dave East

Oh, ooh-ooh, ooh-woah, ooh-woah, ooh-woah, oh-oh
Ooh, yeah (Like that)
Dolla $ign

Dave be the one that wanna see you doing good
I ain't wanna get rich, leave you in the hood
When I'm me in my eyes, you the baddest, got France on my mind, imagine waki ng up in Paris
I'm onto your vibe and your makeup
I'm onto your passion and if you could hook a steak up
Conversating about what's on your mind as we just lay up
Penthouse views in the clouds, I'm on my way up
You text me, I'ma stay up
Everything about you is flawless
Taking pictures when you pose, you told me put it in portrait
I'ma take you shopping for the times I couldn't afford it
I plant a seed, I pray you wouldn't abort it
I'm just fuckin' with you
You smelling like cinnamon and vanilla, ask me why I'm so militant, I'm with killas
Your secrets, no, I won't tell
If I hit it at your mama house, I hope you don't yell
'Cause still ain't shit sweet but the hotel

His and hers
Beauty and the beast is like a gift and curse
But good things come in twos
Baby, let's slide
A lil' Bonnie and Clyde
She let her friend come through
Guess good things come in twos

I hope my presence could erase you feeling lonely Devil on my shoulder, but this water on me holy It's crazy we be having conversations with emojis
You shining, and I really like your timing, like this Rollie
Sweatpants, hair up in a bun, my, your body fun
Let's make our first sex tape and call it Volume One
Or we could go to Crazy Girls until we out of ones
You know they never end, but fuck until these bottles done
I like to drink Clicquot, you rather Casamigos
Me and mi primo, hope you got a friend that he could meet though
Your sex is a weapon, you know this shit is lethal
Things you actually said crack my head like a game of Cee-lo
They say with fame come a cheat code
But they don't understand the things that we know
Certain shit make me grow
There's nothing like you walking out the shower
You listen, I could talk to you for hours
Light another spliff

His and hers
Beauty and the beast is like a gift and curse
But good things come in twos
Baby, let's slide
A lil' Bonnie and Clyde
She let her friend come through

Guess good things come in twos

Nothing the same since the time that I caught her
I be thirsty and her body like water
No-No-Nothing the same since the time that I caught her
I be thirsty and her body like water
No-

Body like water
Body like water
