

Don't Answer the Door

Dave Edmunds

Woman, I don't want a soul
Hangin' around my house when I'm not home
Yeah, I don't want a soul, baby
Hangin' around my house when I'm not home
I don't want you to answer the door to nobody, baby
Yeah, when you're home and you know you're all alone

I don't want your sister coming by
'Cause, you know, the little girl she talk too much
If she wanna come by and visit us
Tell her to meet us Sunday down at the church
'Cause I don't want a soul, baby
Hangin' around my house when I'm not at home
I don't want you to answer the door to nobody, baby
Yeah, when you're home and you know you're all alone

If your mother wanna come by and visit us
Tell her I get home 'bout the break of day
And that's too late to visit anybody, baby
So, tell her to please stay away
I don't want a soul, babe
Hangin' around my house when I'm not at home
I don't want you to answer the door to nobody, baby
Yeah, when you know you're home and you're all alone

Listen
If you feel a little sick, baby
And you know you're home all alone
I don't want the doctor coming by, baby
You just have to suffer 'til I come home
'Cause I don't want a soul, baby
Hangin' around my house when I'm not at home
I don't want you to answer the door to nobody, baby
Yeah, when you know you're home and you're all alone
Aah, yeah
