

Look Alive

Dave Hause

Oh, oh

Oh, oh

If I'm gonna pay for my sins, goddamn, I wanna sin some more
I wanna feel Jameson burn and sing along to "Trusty Chords"
I wanna swim out in the ocean with the mermaid one last time
I wanna shoot out the stars if it's the end of the world tonight
t

Oh, oh

Better bury me standing, my whole life's been on my knees
We'll be laughing in the ashes of the mushroom cloud debris
I wanna dive into the sky with you right by my side
I'm gonna fly if it's the end of the world tonight

If we're going down, we're going down swinging
If it's over now, if the broken bell's ringing
I wanna fill my lungs with chemicals, I wanna burn out fast and bright
I wanna leave nothing left to chance
If it's the end of the world tonight
Oh, oh

I wanna rob a casino with the taste of you on my lips
I wanna Evel Knievel my way off of the London Bridge
I wanna dance like Fred Astaire while dodging bullets left and right
I wanna feel it all if it's the end of the world tonight

If we're going down, we're going down swinging
If it's over now, if the broken bell's ringing
I wanna fill my lungs with chemicals, I wanna burn out fast and
If it's the end of the world tonight
Oh, oh
If it's the end of the world tonight
Oh, oh

If we're going down, we're going down swinging
If it's over now, if the broken bell's ringing
I wanna fill my lungs with chemicals, I wanna burn out fast and
If it's the end of the world tonight
Oh, oh
If it's the end of the world tonight
Oh, oh

If it's the end of the world tonight
