

Fools Gold

Dave Mason

It's not my fault you're crazy, sorry if I made you blue
I know sometimes I'm a little bit lazy 'bout doing what I'm supposed to do
You think you found your fortune, maybe hit the mother lode
Lookin' for someone to marry who'll keep you in expensive clothes

Well it's fool's gold, pretty mama
Don't you wanna marry for love?
If you wanna marry for money
It's the fool's gold you should love

Well it's not my fault you're crazy, sorry if I made you blue
I know sometimes I'm a little bit lazy 'bout doing what I'm supposed to do
You think you found your fortune, maybe hit the mother lode
Lookin' for someone to marry who'll keep you in expensive clothes

Well it's fool's gold, pretty mama
Don't you wanna marry for love?
If you wanna marry for money
It's the fool's gold you should love

Well it's fool's gold, pretty mama
Don't you wanna marry for love?
If you wanna marry for money
It's the fool's gold you should love

One more time
Well it's fool's gold, pretty mama
Don't you wanna marry for love?
If you wanna marry for money
It's the fool's gold you should love
If you wanna marry for money
It's the fool's gold you should love
If you wanna marry for money
It's the fool's gold you should love
