

Forever

Dave Mason

Just to know you're there
Just to know you care
Just to know you'll be
Forever loving me
Forever loving me

Just to feel your touch
I need it all so much
That's how it's meant to be
Forever loving me
Forever loving me

When you found your heart had in mind
Nothing could stand in your way
If the heaven should tumble, a mountain should crumble away

When you found your heart had in mind
Nothing could stand in your way
If the heaven should tumble, a mountain should crumble away

Just to feel your touch
I need it all so much
That's how it's meant to be
Forever loving me
Forever loving me

Loving you
Loving me (forever)
Loving you
Loving me (forever)
Loving you
Loving me (forever)
Loving you
Loving me (forever)
Loving you
Loving me (forever)
Loving you
Loving me (forever)
Loving you
Loving me (forever)
