

Here We Go Again

Dave Mason

This silence in my mind
Was not so hard to find
It happened when you went away
You opened up a door
I'd never seen before
You taught me how to live each day

Once before I thought I knew
But for sure this one is true

Love was nothing new to me
I'd seen in all I care to see
Until I saw it through your eyes

Feeling warm and feeling good
Feeling love will last the way it should

I learned a lot from you
All you allowed me to
I saw the truth behind the lies
But there's one thing that I know
I won't be so sad it's time you go
