

Sit And Wonder

Dave Mason

Yesterday had nothing to say
Tomorrow may bring me a thought
Today was here, now it's turning to fear
If it's with you then I should stay

Sit and wonder why I'm leaving
Sit and wonder if you're calm
Sit and wonder why I'm looking for a meaning
Sit and wonder while I'm wondering at all

Yesterday you gave me my way
Tomorrow I'm gonna give you yours
Today we shared
An each other of friend
Now there's really nothing left
Falling to say

Sit and wonder why I'm leaving
Sit and wonder if you're calm
Sit and wonder why I'm looking for a meaning
Sit and wonder while I'm wondering at all

I'll have to stop myself from wondering from you
And finding you a single day
But there's someone stood behind me still Someone's voice that keeps on calling me away

Sit and wonder why I'm leaving
Sit and wonder if you're calm
Sit and wonder why I'm looking for a meaning
Sit and wonder while I'm wondering at all

Yesterday had nothing to say
Tomorrow may bring me a thought
Today was here, now it's turning to fear
If it's with you then I should stay

Sit and wonder why I'm leaving
Sit and wonder if you're calm
Sit and wonder why I'm looking for a meaning
Sit and wonder while I'm wondering at all
