

Looking for a Vein

Dave Matthews Band

I'm down in this hole again
Trying to find a vein of something
Hammering these walls and hoping
Hoping to find my way through

What if I strike it rich as I wanna be?
Will it set me free or be just another hole to dig?

I can't give up on this
What am I supposed to do?
Hammering these walls down here
Trying to find a way out

But what if I strike it rich as I wanna be?
Would it set me free or be just another hole to dig?

What will it mean?
What will it mean?
What will it be?
What does it matter?

But I can't give up on this
Always trying to break on through
This air is choking me
But hammering's all I know to do

Do you remember when all this digging began?
I can't stop looking, but what am I looking at?

What will it mean?
What will it mean?
What will it be?
What does it matter?

Maybe I'll find a vein
Hammering these walls and hoping
