

Purple Heart

Dave

Look
Let's pour another drink
Numb the pain
Emotionally detached, she said I'm numb to pain
You're askin' what it's like to love, I told her love's a game
You learn that love is pain, then learn to love the pain
I got a purple heart, you got a purple heart
You think my work is art and I think you're a work of art
But girl I can't lie, you're a gem and I ain't even talkin' 'bout the star sign
You're my superstar
You're my wish into a shooting star
After hours, you're my movie star, pop star
I got you singin' like a rockstar
McCartney, she interstellar like Jupiter
You had a shift today, cancel that
I booked a flight, let's go and catch a tan or take you out to Hakkasan
You've had a couple boyfriends but never had a man
I'll catch him at a traffic jam
Red light, Amsterdam if he tries to disrespect
But fuck them man, let's blow a bag on Chanel and get all them niggas vexxed
On some different flow
Actin' like you didn't know a nigga's soul
Gary Coleman, I got them Different Strokes
You throw it back and now I'm matchin' your rhythm
In missionary I'm a man on a mission to make your legs shake
To make you feel it in your stomach and your chestplate
Until the next day, you give me head until your head aches
I heard a saying, "You get fast, it never lasts"
Forget pain, there's no club inside of a deck of cards
You gave your heart to a joker, now you can try a king
You play it close to the chest, you gotta check or pass
And a purple heart, wow, you got a purple heart
You think my work is art and I think you're a work of art
I asked her, "Can you do it like the last time?"
She said, "I can sir and I ain't talkin' 'bout the star sign"
