This autumn night of breaking up
Hurts so much
When you said you loved me so much
Tears fall again
As always, I can never get used to sadness
I hoped but you did not stay by my side
My love
Please stop there
My footsteps are too slow
So I'm only looking at you
My eyes are getting blurry
Because of my tears
I'm trying not to cry
But my eyelashes get wet
I say I will forget you
But I'm thinking of you again
My love
Please stop there
My footsteps are too slow
So I'm only looking at you
My eyes are getting blurry
Because of my tears
How much time has to pass?
For me to stop walking in place?
My love, who is leaving
Promise me
Not to forget the way back to me
Even if your heart leaves
I'll be waiting here
Even if the season changes
Please remember me
