Falling asleep
Waking up
It feels strange as if it's my first time
Have you ever?
When my friend called and asked how I was
I burst out into tears
So I hated you so much
But then I missed you so much
Every day, several times
I push you out and then pull you back in
Is breaking up always like this?
Breathing and drinking water
Feel so meaningless all of a sudden
Have you ever?
All of the moments we loved
I wonder if they even existed
Half hate, half longing
Half wanting to forget
Half afraid of forgetting
Is breaking up always like this?
Breathing and drinking water
Feel so meaningless all of a sudden
Have you ever?
Is breaking up always like this?
Have you ever?
