Stop right there before I show tears
Stop right there before separation comes
So you can't leave, so you can't abandon me and leave
From here on, time please stop

Saying farewell, how am I supposed to be well
How am I supposed to send you away while smiling
I can't do that kind of stuff
I'll pretend I didn't hear it
Don't say anything and stop right there

The footsteps that are trying to leave, paste them onto the ground
Also paste the lips that is trying to say separation
So you can't leave, so you can't abandon me and leave
From here on, time please stop

Saying farewell, how am I supposed to be well
How am I supposed to send you away while smiling
I can't do that kind of stuff,
I'll pretend I didn't hear it
Don't say anything and stop right there

I said we should break up through anger
I even spitted on the face that was smiling
I only paid back what you have done to me
You can't come now and just throw me away

Just because they're words, does it all make sense
How are you saying bye to me
I don't understand those words, I'll pretend I didn't hear it
The feet walking away, stop right there
