

For Lovers Only, Pt. 2

David Allan Coe

This ain't no song for crying
For crying in your beer
This is a song for lovers
For lovers everywhere

Another man had you
But he lost his cool
Here I stand knowin'
I'm the same kind of fool for you babe
I never knew no one like you, baby

I never loved before
How can I really be sure?
I know there's no guarantees
You won't leave me
Why don't we just take a chance
See how we like this romance
Wouldn't you just like to dance
Forever

This is the first time that I've danced with my band
I'll face the music if you just hold my hand through it all babe
I can't recall feeling this way, baby

I never loved before
How can I really be sure?
I know there's no guarantee
You won't leave me
If you'll just stay by my side
You won't need no place to hide
At least we'll both know we tried
Together
Why don't we just take a chance
See how we like this romance
Wouldn't you just like to dance
Another

Another man had you
But he lost his cool
I hope you don't think
I'll be that kind of fool for you babe
But I never knew no one like you
