

It's a Sad Situation

David Allan Coe

And it's a sad situation, it never gets better
Lovin' and losin's the same as it's over for Reasons you just can't explain
Gotta hold onto someone when you both don't believe in Each other no longer, no way to keep livin' with both of ya giv in'
Your debts to the devil to pay

So you take the questions
And give me the answers
We both know they're one and the same
While searching for heaven
Our love went to hell
With nothing and no one to blame but each other
There's nothing and no one to blame

And it's a sad situation, it never gets better
When pleasure and pain are the same kinda feelin'
And sunshine's no different than rain
So let's stop pretending this love is not over
Each other no longer no way to keep livin' with both of us know
in'
We broke all the rules in the game

So you take the questions
And give me the answers
We both know they're one and the same
While searching for heaven
Our love went to hell
With nothing and no one to blame but each other
There's nothing and no one to blame

And I woke up this morning
Found a note upon my door
It said you had found another
You didn't love me anymore