Now I Lay Me Down To Cheat

David Allan Coe

Now I lay me down to cheat On the woman, I love so And if I die between these sheets I pray to God, she'll never know

She's the best thing in his life Why she worships the ground that he walks on She waits up for him at night and worries Until he's safely home

And she always believes His stories about workin' overtime And in 20 years beside him Cheatin's never crossed her mind

Aw but it crossed his, early last summer In a person of a neighbor that she still calls her friend And with a little push from drinkin' one too many One night in the fall he gave in

And now he wishes he could stop himself But there's no easy way So he lays down with his lover And silently he prays

Now I lay me down to cheat On the woman, I love so And if I die between these sheets I pray to God, she'll never know

In his heart and soul He knew that he was playing a game, he could never win But ya know, forbidden fruit is sweet Why it was sweet enough to make him risk it all again

And now he's givin' up on lookin' for a way To fight the feeling So he prays this simple prayer And hope it makes it past the hotel ceiling

Now I lay me down to cheat On the woman, I love so And if I die between these sheets I pray to God, she'll never know
