Sweet Angeline

David Allan Coe

Sweet Angeline I hope nobody ever hurts you
Angeline you're still a child
But I can see the woman fighting to bust out
And take you far away from me sweet Angeline

Sweet Angeline you're young and free
Don't ever let nobody get inside your mind
Until you get too blind to see sweet Angeline

Angeline don't let nobody tell you
That your dad don't love you and your mother
Angeline, sweet Angeline, Angeline

Angeline don't let nobody tell you
That your dad don't love you and your mother
Angeline, sweet Angeline, Angeline
