

Therapy

David Archuleta

White lies on the tip of my tongue
In case I say how I feel and I say it wrong
Cuz all the fear in my mind keeps holding on
And I wanna let it go

When I look at you I wanna see forever
On a park bench hanging out together
Watching movies, ordering a pizza
It's a beautiful life

I look at all my other friends
They look so good, they got it made
You make me wanna be the same
That's why, oh why, oh why, oh

Imma need some therapy
Imma need some therapy
Cuz if you love me too good
I know what I'll do
This time I don't wanna break, break
Imma need some therapy
Yeah I need some therapy
Cuz somebody like you
I don't wanna lose
This time I don't wanna break, break up

Guess I always build fences around me
But I wanna build a gate and let you in
So we can lay on the grass and be happy
It's a beautiful life

I look at all my other friends
They look so good, they got it made
You make me wanna be the same
That's why, oh why, oh why, oh

Imma need some therapy
Imma need some therapy
Cuz if you love me too good
I know what I'll do
This time I don't wanna break, break
Imma need some therapy
Yeah I need some therapy
Cuz somebody like you
I don't wanna lose
This time I don't wanna break, break up

Ehhh, yeah, yeah
Ehhh, yeah, yeah

Imma need some therapy
Imma need some therapy
Cuz if you love me too good
I know what I'll do
Yeah I need some therapy

Cuz somebody like you
I don't wanna lose
