Didn't have the best start
Felt like I was falling apart
Am I just a lost cause?
Tell me should I really give up?

I tried to give them my heart
But I never got that far
Couldn't be the good guy
Even though I did try

Thought there was nowhere to go
Down lonely roads
But now I know

The only place I'm going is up
Only make room for love
'Cause my story's far from over
It's only begun
Imma throw it all away
Every last piece of your hate
And though my story's far from over
I've already won

I'm goin' up up up up up up up
I'm goin' up up up up up up

I ain't ever coming back down
You won't ever catch me falling for
The lies that I could never be yeah

Thought there was nowhere to go
Down lonely roads
But now I know

The only place I'm going is up
Only make room for love
'Cause my story's far from over
It's only begun
Imma throw it all away
Every last piece of your hate
And though my story's far from over
I've already won

I'm goin' up up up up up up
I'm goin' up up up up up up
I'm goin' up

Didn't have the best start
Felt like I was falling apart
Am I just a lost cause?
Tell me should I really give up?
