

As the Years Go Passing By

David Bromberg

There is nothing I can do, if you're here to hear me cry
Nothing I can do if you're here to hear me cry
But my love will follow you, as the years go passing by

I gave you everything, everything, that's one thing you can't deny
I gave you everything, it's one thing you can't deny
My love will follow you, as the years go passing by

There is nothing I can do, if you're here to hear me cry
No, if you're just here to hear me cry
But my love will follow you, as the years go passing by

Oh, I'll leave it up to you , baby, so long good bye
Yes, I'll leave it up to you, farewell, good bye
But my love will follow you as the years go passing by
