

Being Together

David Cassidy

Our being together is always
A very big deal to me.
Us taking some time from our daily routines
Only means that we care
And we wanted to share for a while
A tear or a smile.
Give part of ourselves to somebody else.

And our being together is always
So honest and real to me.
Us both saying "Yes, I'm aware that you're there"
Goes to show how you know
When somebody loves you so.

Being together is my kind of fun.
Learning your ups and your downs
Is my dance in the sun.
And if someone asked me
What I needed to count on
To make me as happy as I've ever been
It would be our being together again.
