

Breakin' Down Again

David Cassidy

Looks like I'm breakin' down again
And it seems like I've lost my one and only friend,
Yes it does now

Oh, friends are hard to find
Especially in this cold and lonely time
I guess, I'm breakin' down again

I'm spending too much time at home
And this big old empty house makes me feel so all alone
Yes it does now

Oh, friends are hard to find
Especially on these cold and lonely nights
Looks like I'm breakin' down again

I'm breakin' down again
I'm breakin' down again
I'm breakin' down
Breakin' down again

I'm breakin' down again
I'm breakin' down again
I'm breakin' down
Breakin' down again
