

Remember Me

David Cassidy

I can see in your eyes your concern
And could it be your troubled eyes need to learn
You hesitate but still you wait into the night
And maybe you are not alone, am I right?

Remember me when you feel this way
I have a shoulder to lean on
If you're ever too far away
Remember me, remember me I am the one

Remember me I am the one who sees in your eyes
Remember me I am the one
Remember me I am the one who sees in your eyes

Remember me when you feel this way
I am your shoulder to lean on
And thought I'm never too far away
Remember me, remember me I am the one

Maybe soon the love will shine in your eyes
And this precious love will come to you as no surprise

Remember me I am the one who sees in your eyes
Remember me I am the one
Remember me 'cause I am the one who sees in your eyes
Remember me now I am the one who sees in your eyes
Remember me I am the one who sees in your eyes
Remember me I am the one who sees in your eyes
Remember me I am the one who sees in your eyes
Remember me I am the one who sees in your eyes
