

Glacier

David Choi

All alone
You're glacier floatin' far from home
Thought you should know
That's the reason why I have to go

Close your eyes
open the door
I step outside
You've done this before.

So you just go,
So you won't know
Yeah, you just go
where the wind blows

So you just go
So you won't know
Yeah, you just go
So you'll never know

Taste the wine
Aroma's fillin' up your world
Seek to find
Someone to satisfy your soul

You will find
In the open seas
Broken pieces
In your fantasies

So you just go
So you won't know
Yeah, you just go
Where the wind blows

So you just go
So you won't know
Yeah, you just go
So you'll never know

Drifting slowly, never noticing,
Time is waking, I sit sinking
Awoooooooooooo
Awoooooooooooo

So you just go
So you won't know
Yeah, you just go
Where the wind blows

So you just go
So you won't know
Yeah, you just go
So you'll never know

All alone
You're a glacier floatin far from home

Thought you should know
That's the reason why I have to go
