

God

David Choi

I need to see a miracle in my life or I hope
God if you exist tell me something I don't know
I wish I was smarter, or would I even bother
To decide for life and would that make me feel whole

Ohhh I'm still waiting
Ohhh for another change of season

A close look at the pretty things like needles it makes my heart sting Painful like the memories that hide beneath my skin
I close my eyes to feel it
Sometimes I can't believe it Like weights inside my stomach pulling me to the ground

Ohhh I'm still waiting
Ohhh for another change of season

Hallelujah
Hallelujah

All those worship songs
Couldn't sound more wrong
I need to see a miracle in my life or I hope
God if you exist tell me something I don't know
