

So Weightless

David Choi

I only know, not everyone sees
Something there beyond the breeze
A lioness stare, blond wavy hair
Beautiful, so hard not to care

Every move I make, gets closer to you
Reach your hand out
Should I grab or should I go

I'm feeling so weightless
I don't know what
I don't know how
I ended up in this cloud
I'm feeling so helpless
I don't know when
I don't know how
I'm ever gonna get down

I got a question can I stay for a while?
I'm liking it here but am I on file?
I just want to talk, but you seem so far
Fading away, just like a star

Before you could answer
You've drifted away
Left me here alone, but right now I'm feeling ok

I'm feeling so weightless
I don't know what
I don't know how
I ended up in this cloud
I'm feeling so helpless
I don't know when
I don't know how
I'm ever gonna get down

Before I know it I can't help but wonder
My friends are waiting for me but if I could just stay here
So caught up in bliss, where is my answer?

I'm feeling so weightless
I don't know what
I don't know how
I ended up in this cloud
I'm feeling so helpless
I don't know when
I don't know how
I'm ever gonna get down

Feelin so weightless...Feelin so weightless...
